Reporting Agent: MK/BOATHOUSE

Location: Rome, Italy

Dates: 29 Sept 2013

Narrative:

Agents participating in surveillance operation against Camorra activities in Rome, Italy (see Project: TRIDENT TURN), came across disturbing yet seemingly unrelated circumstances while scouting converted Camorra warehouse in Testaccio neighborhood.

Agents discovered in boarded off area of warehouse offices evidence of ritual murder activities. Area included ritual pentagram painted on floor in blood, other occult symbols decorating walls, nubs of burnt candles littering area, and butchered bodies of two young boys (presumably teenage runaways) in sealed storage barrel.

Further examination revealed no direct connection to Camorra activities. Only marked item in area was porcelain Baby Jesus stamped w/ following address on bottom:

Barnardi Souvenirs
Via Della Conciliazione 14/A
Roma

Statuette was found atop the storage barrel containing the bodies. No supposition was made as to why.

Not wishing to disrupt ongoing TRIDENT TURN activities, agents exited scene without further engagement.

Suggested Action:

1. None offered at this time
