Reporting Agent: DV/CRITIC

Location: Salzburg, Austria

Dates: 21 Sept 2013

Narrative:

Recent chatter on Dark Web message boards in Austria suggests infamous Virgin of Light art piece (see image below), believed to have been key altar font in Isis-Urania Temple of the Hermetic Order of the Golden Dawn magic cult, has been stolen from private collection in Salzburg, Austria.

As black market artwork of great value, will undoubtedly attract intense interest from pagan and occult dealers and buyers across Europe and world. Potential for violent blowback from previous owners possible as well. Mood on Austrian Dark Web regarding this development is nervous.

Suggested Action:

1. Initiate further surveillance of Central European art black market.
